

SURGERY GRAND ROUNDS
Self Assessment Answer Sheet

Friday, April 6, 2012

John Hemmer, M.D. Lecture

Part of the Hemmer Halperin Lecture Series

Hiram C. Polk, Jr., M.D.

Ben A. Reid, Sr., M.D. Professor Emeritus
Department of Surgery, University of Louisville

“Prophalaxis of Pulmonary Embolism”

1. The best test for suspected pulmonary embolism is:
 - a) chest xray
 - b) pulmonary arteriogram
 - c) ventilator perfusion scan
 - d) CT angiogram

Answer: D

2. What medical groups accept and apply standards of practice most uniformly?
Select as many as you choose.
 - a) gynecologists
 - b) general surgeons
 - c) orthopedic surgeons
 - d) vascular surgeons

Answer: A and C

3. While prophylaxis with mechanical (devices) and drugs is desirable, it is not:
 - a) Variably done
 - b) Usually expensive
 - c) Uniformly effective
 - d) A valid index of quality care

Answer: A/B and/or C