

SURGERY GRAND ROUNDS

Self Assessment Questions

Department of Surgery, University of Louisville
Auditorium, Lower Level, Ambulatory Care Building
7:00 – 8:00 a.m.

August 26, 2011

Christopher Schneider, M.D.

“Management of Post Gastrectomy Complications”

1. Which of the following is NOT useful for improving gastric motility?
  - a. Metronidazole
  - b. Erythromycin
  - c. Motilin
  - d. Metochlopramide
  - e. Domperidone

Answer: A

2. Roux–en–Y reconstruction after gastric resection prevents bile reflux and alkaline gastritis. The primary complication limiting use of this technique is:
  - a. Internal herniation of small bowel
  - b. Delayed gastric emptying
  - c. Bacterial overgrowth in small bowel
  - d. Recurrent gastric ulceration

Answer: B

3. Which of the following is NOT likely to be a major complication following gastric resection and gastrojejunostomy reconstruction?
  - a. Alkaline gastritis
  - b. Afferent loop syndrom
  - c. Duodenal Stump leak
  - d. Gastroesophageal reflux
  - e. Marginal ulcerations

Answer: D