

SURGERY GRAND ROUNDS
Self Assessment Answer Sheet

Friday, March 16, 2012

Michael Marvin, M.D.

Associate Professor of Surgery, Director, Division of Transplant Surgery
Department of Surgery, University of Louisville

"Mia Culpa: Learning from Adverse Outcomes"

- 1. Apologizing to patients or their families after an unanticipated outcome is an admission of "guilt" and should be avoided.

(True/False) False
- 2. Most medical errors can be traced to systemic issues in a hospital and not to any one individual practitioner.

(True/False) True
- 3. Errors secondary to poor communication are significant etiologic factors leading to adverse outcomes.

(True/False) True